WATCHMAN FINED

HE THOUGHT HE HAD A RIGHT TO CARRY A PISTOL.

He Didn't, Hence the Fines—Other Cases in the Police Court Today.

It is Barrett, watchman for the Lack Singletree Co., will have to pay $30 and costs for his ignorance. He carried a pistol, thinking he was acting within the limits of the law because of his position, but Judge Sanders had to assess the fine with a ten days' jail sentence. Barrett was not on the best of terms with a Mrs. Smith, of the South Side, and several nights ago while sitting in a pistol Mrs. Smith came in and ordered him out of her husband's store. He refused to go at this particular time and Mrs. Smith threatened to secure her pistol. Barrett claims she did and Mrs. Smith denies. Judge Sanders after hearing the evidence, which was conflicting, dismissed the warrant charging Barrett with flourishing a pistol, but assessed a fine of $30 and costs and ten days in jail for carrying the weapon concealed. The only watchmen who have a right to carry pistols are those invested by the police board with special police powers. Other cases were: Sam Hester, colored, breach of the peace, dismissed; Robert Torban, white, breach of ordinance, left open; Jack Coulson, Harry Cunningham, breach of ordinance, continued; Abe Doyle, obtaining money by false pretenses, dismissed; Cleveland Edwards, white, house breaking, continued until Saturday; Harry Brown, colored, breach of ordinance by failing to get a dog license, dismissed, he having procured the license; Henry Vaughan, colored, grand larceny, continued; Curt Grundy and Charles Buckner, colored, jumping on and off moving trains, left open.

HON. ELIHU ROOT

Has Not Declined the Position of Secretary of State.

Jersey City, July 6.—President Roosevelt arrived this morning from Cleveland, and left a few minutes later for Oyster Bay. The announcement will be made sometime tomorrow regarding the portfolio of state. It is positively stated that Elihu Root has not declined the place.

Reported Root Will Accept. Washington, D. C., July 6.—It is reported here that ex-Secretary of War Root has indicated to the president his willingness to accept the portfolio of secretary of state.

THE COUNTY ROADS CAUSE A BIG MUSS

Injunction to be Brought in Connection With Contracts.

County Judge Decides That the Supervisor is the Judge of Bids For Work.

A RATHER MIXED-UP AFFAIR.

The methods employed in letting contracts for repairing or graveling county roads will probably be aired in the courts. According to reports in circulation today, an injunction suit will be filed this afternoon to prevent Dick Penn from graveling three miles and 700 feet of county road from the Benton road to the upper Island creek bridge, and to determine how far the authority of the supervisor extends in awarding contracts.

As near as can be determined, the facts seem to be that the county road contracts have always been let privately by the county road supervisor or whenever he desired to.

When bids were recently taken for the work in question, there were four verbal bids, according to report. These were: C. Bass, 22 1/2 cents per lineal foot; Dick Penn, 24 cents; Will Yancy, 24 cents and Ed. Baker, 24 1/2 cents.

Supervisor Johnson, it seems, considered the Penn bid the best, and awarded him the contract. Yancy, it is said, was really in with Bass, and immediately raised a kick because Bass the lowest bidder did not get the job.

It is understood that one solution was for Baker to buy Penn off, and he did so by paying him $75, and take on as his partner Yancy, which would probably have ended the controversy, but County Judge Lightfoot, it seems, heard of the deal, and this morning held an investigation.

After hearing the facts he decided that the county road supervisor has a right to let contracts privately and had a right to determine which of the above bids he considered the lowest and best.

He said that buying off a contractor would not work, and ordered the $75 paid back and notified Penn and Baker to proceed with the work.

Yancy, who was to take Penn's place, it is understood, is not satisfied and is having an injunction suit drawn up to test the county road supervisor's right to let contracts arbitrarily, and to prevent the present contract being performed by Penn the man to whom Supervisor Johnson awarded it.

JUDGE PAYNTER HERE.

Candidate for the United States Senatorship in Paducah.

Judge T. H. Paynter of the court of appeals, arrived today from Frankfort, Ky., and is at the Palmer house. Judge Paynter is a candidate for United States senator against Jo C. S. Blackburn, and as the latter was here a few days ago looking after his interests, it is not surprising that Judge Paynter should find himself soon on the scene.

SNEAK THIEF

Enters the Home of Andrew Bamberger, On South Ninth.

The residence of Mr. Andrew Bamberger, of 504 South Ninth street, was entered last night by a thief and about $2.50 stolen. The thief entered through a window and did not arouse any of the family. The theft was not discovered until the family awakened this morning. No clue has been secured but the police are working on the case.

A Big Coal Combustion.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.—A combination of 26 coal companies of Indiana, controlling 29,000 acres of coal lands, has been formed here under the name of the Vandine Coal company. The new concern has a capital of $7,000,000, and is said to be the largest coal company ever consummated in the west. The annual output will be 3,000,000 tons. A. M. Ogle of Indianapolis, is president.

COSTLY MATCHING.

Richard Carle Tossed Pennies for $15,000.

Chicago, July 6.—Richard Carle, the well known comedian, lost $15,000 matching pennies in the cafe of the Auditorium hotel yesterday. The winner was William P. Cullen, a theatrical manager. The $15,000 lost by Mr. Carle was not in the form of cash, but represented the United States, Canadian and 25 per cent of the London rights of production in his opera, "The Tenderfoot."

Cullen bought the costumes and scenic equipment and then came the question of rights. Carle wanted $15,000. Cullen could not see it that way. The argument resulted in flipping a penny to see whether Carle should have $15,000 or nothing. He tried to match Cullen and had "tails" to Cullen's "heads."

POOR BRUCE

WELL KNOWN CHARACTER HAD A COSTLY JAMBOREE THIS TIME.

Fined For Bad Behavior and a $300 Recognizance Was Declared Forfeited.

Bruce Gilliam, who comes to town at intervals and usually leaves with the knowledge that there has been "something doing" during his stay, is like the pitcher that went to the well once too often.

This time Bruce is in trouble to his neck, for he is now indebted to the city in the sum of $330 and costs, and from present indications will serve a term in city prison in payment for at least a part of the fine assessed against him this morning in police court.

Bruce came to Paducah yesterday afternoon and began to take on "fuel." Towards evening he had a good head of steam and became very boisterous. Several friends placed him in his buggy near Fourth and Broadway and sent him out Broadway instructing him to return home.

Bruce thought he needed more fuel and returned. His horse's ordinary gait was not fast enough and Bruce brought his whip into service. Pedestrians, vehicles and everything else on the street got out of the way to give him passage and when he was finally stopped was immediately pounced on by Officers Johnson and Rogers.

Two warrants were read to him this morning in police court, one for a breach of the peace by the use of loud and profane language on the streets, and another for fast driving. He was fined $30 and costs in the former and $10 and costs in the latter, and Judge Sanders, in addition, declared his recognizance bond forfeited which means he will have to pay $300 or go to prison.

The police had been troubled with Gilliam for several years and when Judge Sanders saw he did not intend or try to mend his ways, placed him under a bond of $300 to keep the peace. His behavior was good until yesterday when he came to Paducah again and fell by the wayside.

DRAKE RETURNED.

Saloon Keeper Who Left Suddenly Returns and Paid Fine.

A. P. Drake, who formerly ran the "Bucket of Blood" saloon at Tenth and Humboldt street and who suddenly abandoned it last December, when he was wanted for violating the Sabbath, returned to the city yesterday and this morning paid his fine of $15 and costs for the Sunday violation.

Drake is now living in Metropolis and had not been in Paducah since the Monday he was wanted. The saloon has subsequently been converted into a dance hall.

MOTHER ARRESTED.

Evidence of a Foul Crime Developed at Wickliffe Trial.

Wickliffe, Ky., July 6.—The examining trial here of Lige Westmoreland, charged with the murder of his three-year-old child at Hazlewood on Wednesday the 25th ult., resulted in Judge Moore holding him without bail to await the action of the grand jury at the August term of the circuit court. A warrant was issued for Mrs. Westmoreland, charging her with complicity

A FELONY CHARGE WILL BE PREFERRED

J. S. Bordeaux to be Warranted This Afternoon.

He Will Be Charged With Embezzling the Funds of the Defunct Company.

BOOKS GIVEN TO RECEIVERS.

Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Lovett, before he returned to Benton this afternoon, authorized the issuance of a warrant against J. S. Bordeaux, former manager of the Home Purchasing company, for alleged embezzlement.

The affidavit on which the warrant will be issued by Justice Jesse Young is that of K. McKee, one of the certificate holders. Justice Young will issue the warrant this afternoon some time, and the specific charge will be embezzling $500 of the company's funds which were put up as Bordeaux's bond, and forfeited when he skipped.

Attorney Lovett said today that issuing only one warrant does not mean that there is only one person mixed up in the affair, but that it might be well to see how one case turns out before issuing other warrants.

Nothing is known of Bordeaux, but now that he is charged with a felony he can be brought back, and there is no doubt but that with a suitable reward by the state he will be.

In addition, the government will probably be after some of the promoters of the concern when its investigation is complete.

The books of the Home Purchasing Co. have now been posted up and are ready for inspection.

This morning the books were and E. G. Rudolph by the bookkeeper turned over to Receivers Cecil Reed of the concern and this afternoon will be given over to Justice H. J. Barber, an expert accountant, who will investigate and see if the company is short and if so to what extent and to investigate into the methods of business of the concern.

FOR REBATING

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY LOVETT WILL SUE INSURANCE AGENTS.

Says Half a Dozen or More Companies Have Been Rebating Here.

Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Lovett, of Benton, left this afternoon for home to prepare several civil actions against local insurance agents and their companies for alleged rebating.

Attorney Lovett stated that he has been investigating the methods employed by some of the insurance agents here in writing insurance, and learned that several companies, possibly as many as half a dozen, were doing a rebating business. The state laws provide a fine when convicted, not to exceed $500.

Attorney Lovett says he will bring the suits in the McCracken circuit court within a few days. They are not exactly criminal proceedings but amount to about the same in cases of conviction.

FOR MANEUVERS ONLY.

Said to Be Little Prospect For Hostilities Between Norway and Sweden.

Manchester, England, July 6.—The Guardian states that it is informed authoritatively that the mobilization of troops by Norway and Sweden, which it was reported indicated that hostilities are soon to begin between the two countries, are simply for the ordinary summer maneuvers.

Carrie Nation's Usual Sont.

Carni, Ill., July 6.—Carrie Nation's speaking here on the Fourth of July was broken up by a miniature riot, but later she was allowed to proceed. She assailed many prominent people. There was firing of pistols and other species of disorder.

DARING PIRATES BECOME ARROGANT

They Summon Council of Theodosia and Demand Food and Coal.

ISSUE A MANIFESTO TO POWERS THAT CIVIL WAR HAS BEGUN

The Vessel is Now Supposed to be Steaming Somewhere in the Black Sea.

St. Petersburg, July 6.—While no official confirmation is obtainable the admiral is alleged to have received news that the Kniaz Potemkine, after obtaining coal, provisions and medicines is again at large in the Black Sea and its destination unknown. Whether the report is true or not the crew took a remarkable step when with all the solemnity of provisional government it issued a manifesto addressed to the powers, announcing that civil war had begun against the existing regime in Russia and pledging foreign shipping and foreign protection.

This action is doubtless to quiet apprehensions of foreign powers and leaves no excuse for sending vessels through the Dardanelles to effect the capture of the battleship. It is considered a shrewd move on the part of mutineers and stamps the commander of the crew as a leader far above an ordinary sailor and strengthens the opinion that he was not a member of the original crew but one of the revolutionary leaders who went on board at Odessa.

According to a rumor printed in an afternoon paper the ship's strong box contained $375,000.

Dispatches from Tiflis say reports of the rioting at Odessa and the action of the Kniaz Potemkine aroused the most intense interest and wildest joy among revolutionists. It was followed immediately by a complete strike, even lamp-lighters quitting work.

Considerable anxiety is felt because the cruiser Chernomoretz due at Sebastopol Monday, has not yet arrived.

Order has not been restored at Bielostok. A censored telegram reports shooting has been heard. Crowds are fleeing and wild excitement prevails. No details were given.

Peace Envoys Ready to Leave.

Tokio, July 6.—Baron Komura, minister of foreign affairs and one of the Japanese peace envoys, and other members of the party which will go to Washington to meet the Russian plenipotentiaries, had a farewell inacheon with the Mikado today previous to their departure for the United States.

Trouble in the Caucasus.

St. Petersburg, July 6.—There are indications of a threatened armed uprising in the Caucasus, where disturbances have been going on for some time. It is feared the trouble will culminate in a general outbreak. The greatest excitement prevails at Tiflis. No newspapers appeared today and there is great danger of a general riot.

Soldiers Are Joining Strike.

St. Petersburg, July 6.—The strike is slowly spreading to the strong cavalry force guarding the Pulkoff plant, and Cossacks patrolling the city workers at the LaFerne Tobacco works, joined the strike today.

Mutineers to Be Shot.

Odessa, July 6.—Sixty-seven mutineers from Georgi Pobledanovetz, including the ringleaders, were imprisoned today. It is expected all will be shot.

Provisions Were Forced.

Theodosia, Crimea, July 6.—Summoned by the Kniaz Potemkine, representatives of the town council went on board the battleship and were received in the admiral's cabin by the commission commanding her. The commission demanded the delivery of 500 tons of coal and provisions of various kinds within 24 hours and threatened in event of non-compliance after warning inhabitants, that the town would be bombed.

barded. The commission also proposed that the mayor should transmit to the population a proclamation demanding termination of the war and convocation of the zemstvo congress. Learning of these demands many inhabitants fled. The workmen insisted that the demands be granted.

A special meeting of the municipal council was called and the council consented to deliver provisions, but refused to comply with the demands for coal, for the reason that the town had none.

POSTMEN BACK.

Important Change Proposed in the Letter Carriers' Insurance.

Postmen Jesse Curd and Frank Moore returned from Louisville last night, and report a pleasant time at the annual convention of the state letter carriers. Mr. Curd is elated over his election as delegate from the state at large to the national convention at Portland, Ore., which place he captured in a warm contest with a Louisville man.

One of the Important matters discussed was that of insurance.

President Keller, of the national association, in an address recommended a readjustment of the insurance rates. The order now issues policies of $1,000, $2,000 and $3,000 for an annual rate of about $5 per thousand. This rate, he said, must be raised at least 65 per cent or the insurance feature would have to be dropped.

BLOW WAS FATAL.

Fistic Bout in Washington Costs a Life.

Aberdeen, Wash., July 6.—Fred Ross, who was knocked out by Jack Donnelly in the sixteenth round, of a prize fight Monday night, is dead. His neck was dislocated and a blood clot gathered on the brain. Donnelly is from St. Louis, Ross from Denver. The coroner has ordered the arrest of Donnelly.

GOOD INCREASE

Is Shown by the Report of the Post Office For Last Quarter.

The report of the Paducah postoffice for the quarter ending June 30th has been completed, and shows that the receipts were $12,183.41 for the three months, as against $10,820.81 for the same quarter last year.

This is an increase of $1,362.60, showing that Paducah's business is rapidly increasing.

FIVE KILLED.

A few errors in the first inning on the part of the Indians served to clinch the game for the Lunatics at Wallace park yesterday afternoon, but the Indians rallied towards the latter part of the contest and came near winning out.

South was in the box for the Indians and acquitted himself with credit. The first inning was bad, even for an old head's nerve supply, but the youngster stood it all and pitched good ball. It was an off day for the Redskins and that's all there was to it.

In the first inning Harlow hit a grounder to Perry who fumbled. McAndrews tried to sacrifice and Bohannon fumbled his hit. Morris hit to right for one sack and Harlow in trying to score was caught by Lloyd with a magnificent throw. Meyers sacrificed to Bohannon who threw wild to Land, McAndrews scoring. Brady hit to Potts who fumbled and Meyers and Brady completed a double steal. Henderson's hit scored both runners and the next two men were retired in order.

The Indians scored in the eighth and ninth innings. McClain singled and also did Gilligan. Bohannon singled and McClain started in home on the hit. He saw he was caught and returned to third. Gilligan came ahead, thinking McClain was going to single, but was caught off second base in the running line. Taylor hit for one sack and scored both runners. Perry and Taylor were retired on a fast double from McAndrews to Henderson to Meyers.

Empire—Zinkins.

Alice Bally Heaton.
Vincennes, Ind., July 6.—Princeton gave Vincennes one of the worst defeats of the season yesterday. Nunnemaker got his bumps good and strong, Princeton piling up seventeen hits. The score by innings was: Innings. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 r h e Vinc... 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 7 5 Princeton. 2 3 1 0 0 2 0 1 0 9 17 1 Batteries—Nunnemaker and Lemmon; Rossen and Downing.

Henderson Won Despite Seven Errors
Calro, Ill., July 6.—The locals were unable to bunch hits on Gilbert and were blanked. Henderson had seven errors but they were not costly. The score by innings was: Innings. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 r h e Hend... 2 0 0 1 0 2 0 0 0 5 8 7 Calro... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 Batteries—Gilbert and French; Dowell and Harvey.

Engle, who played short stop and third base for the Clarksville team two seasons ago, is hitting 435 with Augusta in the South Atlantic league. He was a "home run getter" in the Kitty league.

Brockett, with Buffalo in the Eastern league, is said to be hitting 330.

The Hopkinsville New Era alleges that Empire Kelfer has jumped his contract and that Zinkins is going to be "canned." President Brown is in Chicago and the truth of the matter can't be gotten to until Brown returns. But it is said that the report is erroneous. Kelfer did want to quit when he was here last but was persuaded to remain. Kelfer has had fewer kicks against him than any umpire in the league and is "there with the goods." It is hoped that the report is erroneous. Kelfer got a leave of absence in order to visit his wife, who is ill. Zinkins is also one of the best umpires in the country.

Peipho, who played with Calro in 1903, Calro, Paducah and Hopkinsville in 1901, is this season working with Marion in the South Atlantic League. He is hitting weak, not batting over 150.

Potts hit 1,000 yesterday, being up four times with four hits.

McClain is one of the surest hitters in the team and Lloyd proved that he has a good batting eye.

Gilligan is without a doubt the best base runner in the league. He can slide around over and under any baseman and rarely gets caught. Yesterday he made a great slide to third sack and on first base eluded several attempts to retire him while playing off.

Lloyd made one of the finest throws ever seen on the local diamond yesterday. He fielded a line drive to right field and threw to Land, cutting off Harlow by several feet. The ball was thrown straight across the home plate and could not have been more perfect.

It was an off day with the Indians yesterday but Vincennes lost too, and the pill was not so hard to swallow.

Vincennes Baying Trouble.
Manager Eddie Kohl of the Albion Men, is having his troubles in large bunches. The telegram from Vincennes received by the Bulletin last night states that there is a bad feeling existing among the men on that team and that several releases and suspensions will be made when some of the new players who have been signed arrive. From this it may be seen that the team "which had the pennant clutched" hasn't such a rosy outlook after all. They will find winning their games a decidedly hard matter when they stack up against a changed and disrupted team as the Mud Wallpapers have. It is not likely that they will even prove as fortunate as the Calro bunch has and before they are well in trim again they will be down where the remaining teams in the league will have an elegant

AN OLD LAW.

Day Result In a Distribution of the Equitable Surplus.

New York, July 6.—The American prints the following:

"Through an obscure and hitherto ignored clause in the insurance law, a revolution in the insurance world is now threatened. High legal authorities claim to have discovered that all of the deferred dividend policies, constituting two thirds of the risks outstanding against New York companies, are, and always have been, illegal. The matter has been presented to Supt. Hendricks, with the request that he proceed first of all to compel the Equitable to distribute the $78,000,000 surplus of that company among the holders of deferred dividend policies, to whom the enormous fund is said to belong.

"Probably 300,000 policy holders would share in this distribution if Mr. Hendricks took action. The law, which now promises to add 10 per cent to the value of each of these policies, is a piece of legislation passed thirty-seven years ago. The bill contained a 'joker' which was supposed by its authors to give them authority to hold back the company's profits from its policy holders and accumulate them for personal ends."

KENTUCKY COAL
FOR THE YEAR 1904A Few Interesting Statistics are Just Out.

The Output Shows a Decrease of 30,027 Tons—Twenty Lives Were Lost During the Year.

SHOWING OF WEST KENTUCKY.

Frankfort, Ky., July 6.—Following are statistics prepared by C. J. Norwood, chief inspector of the mines, relating to the production of commercial coal by the Kentucky mines during the year 1904. The total production of all coal workings, including small country and "family" dumps as well as the commercial mines, as reported by the United States Geological Survey, amounted to 7,559,340 short tons. The State Mine Inspector, however, deals only with the commercial mines, since he has not the clerical force necessary to gather and tabulate statistics relating to all the smaller producers. According to the monthly returns made to the Mine Inspector's office the production of commercial coal amounted to 7,167,321 short tons, in which are included 68,400 tons of cannel.

The following table shows the tons produced by each of the three mining districts:

District	Sold Locally	Shipped
Western	1,655,657	3,375,913
Southeast	30,983	2,348,152
Northeast	4,366	564,727
Totals	2,010,006	6,287,792

Compared with the output for 1903 17,198,241, the figures for 1904 show a net decrease of 30,927 tons. And the source of production here only the mines that were operating in 1903, the net loss would have been much greater. The loss was kept down by contributions from 15 new mines, as is shown by the following:

District	Tons
Western, loss shown by older mines	211,597
Northeastern, loss shown by older mines	245,872
	157,169
Southwestern, net gain by older mines	219,001

Loss by older mines, 228,468
Added by new mines, all districts, 207,541

Net loss, 30,927

The output for 1904 was produced by 141 companies, operating 172 mines, and employing 13,906 persons, of whom 10,591 worked underground. The average number of ten-hour days worked in each district was as follows: The Western, 174; the Southeastern, 184; the Northeastern, 173. The number of hours constituting a working day varies, in practice, with circumstances, at mines working under union agreements it is eight or nine; at others it is usually ten. In the Inspector's statistics the ten-hour day is used for the sake of uniformity.

In the production of the coal, twenty lives were lost, fourteen of them underground.

One life was lost underground for each 785 persons employed in the field.

Messrs. S. J. Cooke and E. G. Knickerbocker, who have been in the city several days looking after the interests of the Frisco system, left this morning on the John S. Hopkins for Evansville, Ind.

The J. B. Finley and the Ranger passed Evansville with big tows of coal for the Mississippi river yesterday.

The Sprague passed down at daybreak this morning with a large fleet of loaded coal barges.

The Pavola left this morning for the Tennessee river for the Chesapeake.

The Inverness left for the Cumberland river this morning.

The John S. Hopkins passed the J. A. Wood at West Frankfort, Ky., last night, coming down with a large coal tow.

There are about five cankers at work at the Paducah Marine Ways, which is now an open shop, and Captain Mike Williams states that he does not anticipate any trouble in securing more when his work demands it. The Finney docks and coal companies here are doing little work at present and still refuse to sign the new agreement.

The W. W. O'Neil and the Harry Brown passed down, the former with 27 and the other with 23 barges. The Brown turned back at Cairo but the O'Neil proceeded to New Orleans. It is the O'Neil's first trip since she sank at Louisville recently.

The S. S. Brown is the name selected by the directors of the Arkansas River Packet company for the new steel hull passenger and freight steamer now under construction for that company at the James Rees & Sons' company works at Pittsburg.

The following is a list of the oldest boats in service: Goodsburo, railroad transfer (formerly U. S. Chickasaw), built in 1863; Coal City, towboat, sternwheel, built in 1864; Maule Doyle, tug, built in 1868; Aradna, tug, built in 1868; Ironsides, tow, sternwheel, built in 1869; Tom Rees No. 2, tow, sternwheel, built in 1869; Tom Dolsworth, tow, sternwheel, built in 1871; St. Louis, railroad transfer, wheel, built in 1870; D. T. Lane, tow, sternwheel, built in 1871; Tom Lyle, tow, built in 1871; Alice Brown, tow, built in 1873; Sam Clark, tow, built in 1870; Courier, journal.

The City of Savannah, of the Tennessee river line, which passed here yesterday, had 2005 bags of peanuts, 115 bales of cotton, 35,000 feet of lumber and a lot of produce.

The rival boats, Indly Glens and the J. B. Richardson, returned yesterday, the former having about 2,000 sacks of wheat and the latter about 2,400. The Richardson claimed to have the best of the bargain in the matter of rates. Each had a number of passengers. Both left last evening with passengers but no freight. —Globe Democrat.

The steamer Sun of the Lee line will be off the ways at Mound City Saturday.

The Eagle packet company at St. Louis, has followed the example set by the state of Indiana, and posted notices of "No cigarette smoking" on its steamers.

The Penguin arrived yesterday from Tennessee river and returns today.

It is seldom that coal tows have passed south at this season of the year, especially such large tows. The biggest towboats are now running in the Ohio with the greatest of ease.

Pilots are complaining because some of the government light keepers allow the grass and weeds to grow up and obscure the lights, and will appeal to the government for relief. It is understood.

The Kentucky is due from Tennessee river and should be here sometime today or tonight. She returns Saturday at 5 p. m.

The Evansville packet today was the John S. Hopkins.

The Woolfolk brought a tow of ties out of Tennessee river yesterday. The Castalia has gone into Tennessee river.

As a rule the greatness of man may be measured by his small deeds of kindness.

Daily Thought.

There is a perennial nobleness, and even sacredness in work. Were he never so benighted, forgetful of his high calling, there is always hope in a man that actually and earnestly works; in idleness alone is there perpetual despair.—Carlyle.

DECAYING DEMOCRACY.

About all that is now left of Democracy is William Jennings Bryan. There does not appear to be much interest taken in the decaying old party, and some of its principal organs are leaving it as rats deserting a sinking ship. The most notable during the past several months are the Chicago Chronicle and the Cincinnati Enquirer. The Chronicle has been Republican for some months, but the Enquirer is just starting. The Globe-Democrat says: "The resignation of John B. McLean, the owner of the Enquirer, as a member of the national Democratic committee was sent to the Ohio state Democratic convention which met Tuesday. It is followed by an announcement that the Enquirer will soon declare its formal adhesion to the Republican party. Whether this is done or not, its desertion of the Democracy is an accomplished fact. The Democratic party may be immortal, but just now it looks much like Dr. Holmes' immortal one-hoss shay on the morning when it went to pieces."

All at once, and nothing first. Just as bubbles do when they burst.

As to Mr. Bryan, those who have doubted his narrowness, malice and desire to incite class hatred, have missed a potent proof of it if they have not read his recent article in the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

The burden of his song seems to be that unless men and corporations that have bulged up enterprises and fortunes by dint of hard work, intelligence and opportunity, do not stop where they are and divide up their ill-gotten gains with those who haven't, there will be the deuce to pay. Mr. Bryan quotes from Dickens "Tale of Two Cities" the harrowing description of scenes of the French revolution, leaving the impression that the great common people, of which he poses as leader may some of these blue days divert themselves by chopping off the heads of the rich.

Mr. Bryan's ideas and apparent fears are of course absurd, but if there should ever be a "Reign of Terror" in this country no one would be more to blame than men of Bryan's stamp who get all out of life they deserve, but notwithstanding are vicious and unscrupulous because it is not as much as others may have.

Chinese merchants seem to misjudge Americans. They have probably been taught that the Almighty dollar is everything with Americans and it may be true to some extent, but it is not true to the extent that they suppose. Most Americans are more patriotic than mercenary, and are not willing to admit the Chinese in order to get their trade and their money.

South Carolina's dispensary system is now said to be a failure, and the people are becoming very much wrought up over charges that graft resulting from the institution is rampant. It is predicted that Senator Tillman who created the system, has a hard fight ahead to prevent the people from overthrowing it.

Paducah seems to have been singularly fortunate in her Fourth of July celebration. While there were many casualties throughout the country, there was a noticeable falling off as compared with previous years, and nowhere was the falling off more pronounced than in Paducah.

The poor dog's time has come. There will be no one to raise money for his defense, and the Town Cow can gaze at him with supercilious disdain as she passes to and fro making her daily rounds. Toward doesn't do enough harm to have a single champion.

Judge Alton B. Parker has emerged from obscurity long enough to say to the world, through Tammany, that the issue should be "the divorce of business and politics." Yes, it should be, but will it ever be as long as there are Democrats?

The problem of what to do with the piratical crew of the Kiaz Potemkin would be easily solved if the vessel would only get within shooting distance of some Japanese warship.

There is a prospect that when the heavyweights, Russia and Japan, go to their dressing rooms, a bout between the feather weights, Norway and Sweden, may be pulled off.

VERY CONSIDERATE.

Mr. Charles Wickliffe Did Not Want to Spoil July 4th With a Funeral.

A dispatch to the Louisville Times says of the death of Mr. Charles Wickliffe, uncle of Mr. W. A. Wickliffe, of Paducah:

Central City, Ky., July 5.—Chas. Wickliffe, aged eighty-seven, died at the home of his son, Charles Wickliffe, in Greenville, Ky. Mr. Wickliffe was the last member of a prominent family of the county, and leaves an aged and invalid wife, one daughter and two sons, the latter the well-known distillers of Greenville. Mr. Wickliffe had frequently remarked that he would be unwilling to be buried on the Fourth of July, not wishing to mar this happy day with a funeral. His wishes in this respect were carried out, and the funeral did not occur until today.

Buy the Best When You Buy Life Insurance

It used to be that a man took out insurance in the company that offered him the best inducements,—probably a rebate on his first premium, or something of the sort.

It's all right to take out a "flyer" now and then, but you never pay the second premium.

You don't know that your estate would get your money if you died, hence you life but once at that point.

In buying insurance you are planning for your loved ones—your wife and children, and it is highly essential that your plans be fulfilled in event of death.

Then, insure in a company you have every confidence in.

The Mutual Benefit, of Newark, is a company that commands itself to every one. Conservatism is a cardinal feature with it—conservatism in everything, and its record is its rates are low.

It pays post mortem dividends if you die within even 30 days of issuance of your policy.

Its cash values are larger and take effect one year sooner than other company's.

I should like to point out innumerable features that will appeal to you.

12 YEAR OLD BOY

Is Arrested on a Charge of Stealing a Grip.

Dennis Reed, a 12 year old colored boy residing on North 12th street, was arrested this morning by Detective Will Baker for stealing a grip belonging to Miss Orvela Jones, of Rural Route No. 2, yesterday morning at the city scales.

The young lady was preparing to drive home and left her grip in her buggy while she went out on an errand. The buggy was left at the city scales lot and she went only a short distance returning in ten minutes to find her grip gone.

The grip contained wearing apparel and the boy disposed of the grip and contents at the Ackerman second hand store. Detective Baker found it there, secured the boy's name and arrested him this morning. The boy did not deny taking the grip and will probably confess and be given a term in the county jail for petty larceny.

WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Embanks, of Paducah, to Mr. Clarence M. Hillman, of Two Harbors, Minn., took place last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride, 603 Broadway. Rev. John S. Cheek, of the First Baptist church, officiating. Only a few relatives and friends attended the ceremony.

Miss Laura Hoffman, of Evansville, was maid of honor, and Mr. W. F. Reid, of Paducah, was best man. Today the couple left for their future home at Two Harbors, expecting to stop at St. Louis, St. Paul and other cities.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. D. Embanks and the groom is a prominent young employee of the Louisville and Iron Bridge railroad.

Miss Edna Habb, of Paducah, and Mr. Fred E. Thompson, of Quincy, Ill., went to Metropolis, Ill., yesterday and were married. The wedding was not an elopement. Miss Blanche Poynter, of Martin, Tenn., and Mr. Samuel Mitchell, of Dublin, Ind., were married at the home of the bride's parents in Martin. The bride is well known in Southwest Kentucky.

Zeb White's Only Child

The Old Possum Hunter Tells About His Son, Who Was Cautious.

"SPEAKIN' 'bout folks who has children," said the old possum hunter as we sat and smoked our pipes one evening. "I'm rather glad I hadn't got any to bring up. Gals may be all right, but yo' kin never tell how a boy is gittin' to turn out. My nabeur, Jim Atkins, is havin' heaps of trouble with his two boys just now. One of 'em was over to the railroad t'other day and wanted to fight the bull-dog, and t'other went to town and got his eye almost put out in a fight. Reckon they'll grow up to be a cantankerous pair."

"But you had a son who died some time ago, didn't you?" I asked.

"Yes, I had a son Sam—the only child we ever had—and he died some five years ago. In one way I'm sorry and in another way glad. It made me kinder lonely to have him go, but I could tigger up that it was fur the best. He was growin' up to be cantankerous and ornery. I don't know what he took it from, but he was that way, and a cantankerous son to happen soon or later.

BEFORE HE WOULD WINK TWICE, I FLOPPED HIM ON HIS BACK.

"How was he cantankerous?"

"Well, that boy had a powerful good heart in him as a general thing, but there was days when the devil seemed to hev possession of him. It wasn't a good to switch him, and when he was under sorts it wasn't no good to argy with him. He was fifteen years old when I came home from the war, and his head was swelled up big 'nuff for a man of forty. He finally got so that he felt like rubbin' up ag'in me. I was at work in the garden one day when he came home from the P'ners' asplint' right and left, and blunely he comes out to me and sez:

"Pop, mebbe yo' calls yo'self the best man on this yere mountin'?"

"Mebbe I do," sez I, as I looks at him under my left eye.

"But yo' ain't, though, and I kin prove it."

"Then who is?"

"He stands right here befo' yo', and his coggomen ar' Sam White. Dad, I'm goin' to whip yo'."

"Better get into the house, boy, and hev yo'r mother giv' yo' some bread and butter and 'busses on it."

"But that boy had the worst kind of swell head," said the old man, "and he was almost in thilukh he could whip his pop. He gits higher and higher, and blunely he calls fur me. I knowed what was comin', and befo' he could wink twice I flopped him on his back and then whopped him till he hollered fur mercy. He lived fur two years arter that, but he didn't try that game on me no mo'."

"One day he was down to Bristol, and that was a circus in town. We went in, and as we was lookin' at the animals one of the lions lies down, with his tail stickin' through the bars of the cage. I seen Sam a-grin, and I sez:

"Young man, don't yo' go and make no fool of yo'self with that lion."

"I'm gwine to pinch that tail," sez he.

"What's the use?"

"I've heard as how they were made of leather and had no feelin' in 'em, and I'm goin' to see about it."

"I didn't say nothin' mo' kase I knowed Sam was bound to have his way if he busted him. He gets into the cage and grabs that tail and gives it a pinch and a twist and then hangs on to it with all his might. The lion jumps up with a roar fit to shake the hills, and in about a minute that lion menagerie was upst and the circus folks a-pillin' on to Sam. One of the older lions in the cage clawed him across the hand, a dog bit him in the leg and then the circus folk whopped him till he didn't get out for six weeks. He was into all best such scrapes as that, and the wonder was that he lived as long as he did. The older he grewed the mo' cantankerous he got, and one day the ole woman cum to me with tears in her eyes and sez:

"Zeb White, Sam's a-gittin' wusser and wusser all the time, and I'm almost hopin' the Lawd will take him away."

"The Lawd couldn't manage him if he did git him," sez I.

"Mebbe he could. Mebbe he's got a pen up thur in heaven to put Sam into and keep him till he's his made over. I'm goin' to dye my shawl black and fix up a mournin' bonnet, fur that boy of ours will be bring home dead befo' he's a month older."

"Well, so he was—so he was," said the old man, with a touch of pathos in his voice. "He was down to the Corners one day to blow and brag with the crowd a hanch' out thar in them days, when a man cum ridin' up on a mule to say that Bill Clark's bull had broken out of the field and was comin' up the road. That bull was a big un and booked two horses to death. As the man was givin' the alarm the bull showed up down the road. He was powin' the air and makin' the heavens quake with his boller, and such as had horses tied up was mighty spry to set 'em loose and git 'em away. Nobody didn't propose to git in the way of that bull and take chances—nobody but my son Sam. It was a chance fur him to show off, and he riz off and yelled:

"This is the day I hev bin livin' fur! I'll go fo' th and take that bull by the horns and flop him on his back!"

"The men tried to argy with Sam, but he was sot, and pullin' off his coat and flingin' down his hat, he walked out and began to paw and boller same as the bull. The critter stops to look at him, and fur a minute or two he must hev wondered what it was. Then his eyes began to glare and his tail to stand out, and the crowd hollered to Sam to git over the fence. He never minuted 'em, but with a roar and a boller he run in on the bull."

"And what happened?" I asked as the old man paused.

"Just what might hev bin looked fur," he replied. "Sam was tossed twenty feet at the first go off, and when that bull got through with him thar wasn't much left to borry. A man cum up to break the news to us. I wasn't home, and he sez to the ole woman:

"Mrs. White, ar' yo' son Sam home today?"

"He ain't," says she.

"And do yo' know why he ain't?"

"Not exactly, but I reckon it's kase he's sunwhar else."

"That's right, Mrs. White—perfectly right and proper. Yo'r son Sam ain't home and ain't comin' home kase he's got bizness up thar in the land of angels and golden streets which will detain him fur sum time."

"And so he was brought home dead?" I queried.

"Just washed right to a pulp, sah. Couldn't be otherwise than dead when that bull had him tassin' him in the air and walkin' around on him fur a quarter of an hour. Yes, that was the last of Sam. All we could do was to hold a funeral and bury him."

"It was a sad case."

"Yes, but me and the ole woman hev alius reckoned that Providence had a hand in it. Sam had got that cantankerous that thar was no holdin' him back. He'd got to fuss around or bust. If he hadn't necked the bull he might have got into a row in town on 'leck-shun day and bin the means of a dozen men bein' killed. Yes, it was better so. I hated to see him go, and he was an only child, but cantankerousness was bound to smash him all to squish sooner or later, and we had to make the best of it and reckon that Providence knowed her bizness."

LIBRARY BOARD

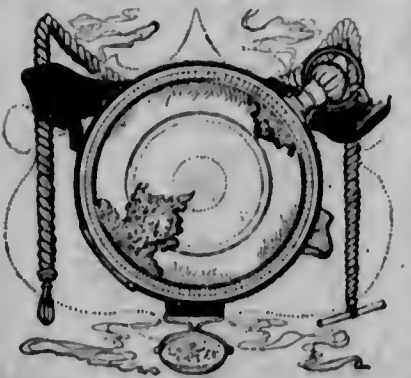

Proposes to Build a Wall About the Library.

The Carnegie Library board has been called in special session tonight for the purpose of passing on several bills and accounts held up and overlooked during previous meetings.

One important matter which will probably be acted on tonight is the building of a wall of stone or concrete on the south side of the building. The idea of board members is to build a three foot stone wall on the Kentucky avenue side, fronting directly on the pavement, and extending around to the south edge of the building on the Ninth street side. This improvement will carry with it several hundred dollars expense but Mayor Yelser has agreed to do all he can officially and personally to secure the improvement.

WARREN & WARREN.

Post Mortem Revenge

[Original.]

In a handsome city residence a few people were assembling to listen to the reading of the will of the recently deceased owner of the property and a considerable fortune besides. The widow and her son, twenty-five years old, the issue of a former marriage, entered, followed by a girl of nineteen, the daughter of the testator. The elder woman was dressed in deepest mourning. Her son wore as somber garments as his mother, his studs and sleeve buttons even being black. So deep was the grief of the stepdaughter that she seemed unconscious of what she wore. Her stepmother and step-brother, however, left a seal for her between them and regarded her from time to time with tender, sympathetic glances. A few relatives of the deceased followed these principal mourners, the family lawyer bringing up the rear. When all were seated he unfolded the will and read:

"I, Henry Arthur Gifford, being of sound mind and body, declare this to be my last will and testament. I bequeath all my property, real and personal, to my beloved wife, Elizabeth Gifford, in perfect confidence that she will make suitable provision for my daughter, Anna Louise Gifford."

"This will," remarked the lawyer, "was made two years ago, and it does not appear that any other has been made since. There are no codicils."

It seemed to those present that if there was any case wherein a stepmother should be thus honored with confidence it was this. The girl sat mute. Indeed she seemed to be so overcome with grief that she had no thought for the management of her interests. She allowed herself to be kissed by her stepfather and his mother. Then the three were about to rise to go out when they heard a voice from behind, at which the widow started. In it she recognized her husband's bosom friend.

"I have to offer a later will."

The brief announcement had a withering effect upon the widow. She caught at the arm of the chair, from which she had partly risen, and stared at the speaker.

"There is no later will," she said. "If you have one, it is a forgery."

The man advanced and handed a paper he carried in his hand to the lawyer, who took it, scrutinized it and, after a careful examination of the signature, said:

"This instrument is properly drawn, bearing date only a few days before the testator's death. I am well acquainted with his signature and consider it genuine."

"Read it!" gasped the widow. "I will read it," said the man who had offered it, and he proceeded to do so. After the usual preliminaries the document continued:

"At the death of my late beloved first wife I married, for companionship and for a mother for my little daughter, a woman who from the day of the ceremony bent her inhuman will to the work of getting my property for herself and her son. She possessed the ability to control both myself and my daughter. To the world we were a singularly united family. In our home my child and I lived as if under the spell of witchcraft. My wife brought me to the verge of nervous prostration, then demanded that I should make a will at her dictation. I refused, whereupon she brought me to the verge of lunacy, and I yielded. I made the will she wished that I might escape her persecutions and having in view this revenge, I am aware that my action stamps me for a weak man, but I am convinced that no man can stand against the cruelty of a woman whom he cannot get rid of."

Then followed a bequest of the bulk of his property to his daughter, a few small legacies being left to other relatives. In this connection the widow and her son were not unmoved. The document concluded as follows: "I direct that my daughter shall from the opening of this will be under the care of my lifelong friend, Robert Rivard, who is hereby appointed her guardian and who has promised to make her a member of his family."

During the reading the expression on the face of Mrs. Gifford was that of a disappointed fury. She had lived since the first will was made in the fear that her husband might make another, but had been confident that the watch she had set upon him was effective. At the conclusion of the reading she arose and walked out of the room without a word, her son following. The heiress moved not till the door had closed behind them. Then with a peculiar cry—a cry in which there was a relief from the torture of years—she arose and threw herself into the arms of her guardian. After resting there a few moments she turned to others who were present and received a shower of heartfelt congratulations.

While Anna Gifford never thoroughly recovered from the loss of her father, with whom she had suffered so many years of torture, she did recover from the persecution of some seventeen years. No one ever dared blame her father in her presence for not having protected her from her stepmother. This she always stoutly maintained was impossible, since he could not even protect himself, nor did she condemn him for taking his revenge, screened behind the grave. She had lived under the same spell as he.

Anna Gifford married and became the mother of children. She did not exact a promise from her husband that if she died before him he would not marry, but she made a will leaving her property as she wished it to be distributed.

ALICE CHEEVER.

NOW

Is the time to begin, to get ready, before the holidays, for changes and vicissitudes to occur then and with the new year; if not to "only with action" soon, at least to be prepared for possible adversity and the pitfalls of life—a step much better for a son or daughter than insurance protection for them. Think of it! Then call and read the large collection of letters showing how others, all around you in Paducah, have succeeded quickly in earning $50, $75, $100 and $125 per month. You can see, also, applications to us, for positions, made by graduates of other institutions as well as letters from graduates of other business colleges thanking us for securing them positions which we obtained for them because they had no work and all of our graduates, and ready pupils, were employed. No other business college in America can boast of such uniform success of its graduates. None other has such facilities; such surpassing equipment; such modern filing methods, card systems, etc. There's a reason why none of its graduates ever failed in any attempt to obtain a position! Six of its pupils graduated last month. All six are in good positions, except one, still attending at midland work. There's a reason why! There's a reason, too, why we have grown without a standing advertisement in the newspapers and without any deceptive plans. There's a reason why pupils have left other colleges and come to us to complete—some, indeed, with diplomas from other business colleges, to take it all over again. There's a reason why you should enter now.
